DISTRICT ATTORNEY OGG'S FIRST AMENDED RESPONSES TO PLAINTIFF OCA-GREATER HOUSTON'S SECOND SET OF INTERROGATORIES

These responses are without prejudice to District Attorney's Ogg position that principles of sovereign immunity bar the requesting plaintiffs' claims against her.

INTERROGATORY NO. 1: Identify each investigation initiated or participated in by your office predicated at least in part on a violation or suspected violation of the above-listed Sections of the Texas Election Code. Include for each investigation identified the Section(s) of the Texas Election Code involved or suspected to be involved, the date the investigation was opened, the result of the investigation (e.g., dismissal because inconclusive), and the date the investigation was closed, where applicable.

RESPONSE NO. 1: During the time period January 1, 2017 to present, there were reports made to the Harris County District Attorney's Office ("HCDAO") of 165 instances in which individuals provided the Harris County District Clerk and/or the City of Houston with responses to jury summonses indicating a lack of U.S. citizenship that may have been inconsistent with representations of citizenship made on previously filed voter registration applications. During this time period, there were reports made to the HCDAO of 470 instances in which individuals signed in to vote in a primary, either Democratic or Republican, after previously signing in to vote in a different party's primary in the same election. During this time period, there was a report made to the HCDAO of a situation in which an individual falsified a voter registration application with the wrong address for that individual. During this time period, there were reports made to the HCDAO of 20 instances in which a person was suspected of voting illegally in person in Harris County—three that involved potential voting by a felon not eligible to vote; two that involved potential voting by non-citizens not eligible to vote; and 15 that involved the potential situation in which a voter voted more than once. During this time period, there was one report to the HCDAO of a claim that an individual engaged in improper ballot harvesting. During this time period, there was one report made to the HCDAO of multiple instances in which a person may have indicated that he or she witnessed a request for mailin ballots when in fact he or she had not. Records maintained by the division of the HCDAO that processes complaints and referrals of Election Code matters, and engages in investigations of Election Code matters, do not reflect other instances of the HCDAO receiving complaints, referrals, and/or participating in investigations during this time period that could have arisen in part or in whole under any one or more of the following provisions of the Texas Election Code as enacted or amended by SB1: 13.007, 33.051(g), 33.061(a), 64.012, 86.006(f), 86.010(i), 86.0105, 276.004(a), 276.013, 276.015(b)-(d), 276.016(a), 276.017(a), and 276.018(a).

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2: Identify each prosecution initiated or participated in by your office predicated at least in part on a violation or suspected violation of the above-listed Sections of the Texas Election Code. Include for each prosecution identified the Section(s) of the Texas Election Code involved or suspected to be involved, the date the prosecution was initiated, and the result of the prosecution.

RESPONSE NO. 2: From January 1, 2017 to present, the HCDAO has participated in the following prosecutions, which are of public record:

State v. Anthony Rodriguez, Cause No. 1629438 (176th Judicial District Court) (filed 4/26/19)

State v. Richard Anthony Bonton, Case No. 2337503 (Harris CCCL #15) (filed 12/11/20)

State v. Natasha Nicole Demming, Case No. 2337506 (Harris CCCL #15) (filed 12/11/20)

Records maintained by the division of the HCDAO that processes complaints and referrals of Election Code matters, and engages in prosecutions of Election Code matters, do not reflect other instances of prosecutions that arose in part or in whole under any one or more of the following provisions of the Texas Election Code as enacted or amended by SB1: 13.007, 33.051(g), 33.061(a), 64.012, 86.006(f), 86.010(i), 86.0105, 276.004(a), 276.013, 276.015(b)-(d), 276.016(a), 276.017(a), and 276.018(a).

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

INTERROGATORY NO. 3: Identify and describe with particularity any communications your office has had with the OAG regarding investigations or prosecutions related to the above-listed Sections of the Texas Election Code.

RESPONSE NO. 3: At least four of the matters involving a complaint, referral, and/or investigation as discussed in the response to Interrogatory No. 1 involved communications with the "OAG" as defined in the request.

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4: Identify and describe with particularity any communications your office has had with the SOS regarding investigations or prosecutions related to the above-listed Sections of the Texas Election Code.

RESPONSE NO. 4: At least one of the matters involving a complaint, referral, and/or investigation as discussed in the response to Interrogatory No. 1 involved communications with the "SOS" as defined in the request.

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

INTERROGATORY NO. 5: Identify and describe with particularity any communications your office has had with State officials regarding investigations or prosecutions related to the above-listed Sections of the Texas Election Code.

RESPONSE NO. 5: See responses to Interrogatories 3 and 4.

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

INTERROGATORY NO. 6: Identify and describe with particularity any communications your office has had with local officials, other than you, regarding investigations or prosecutions related to the above-listed Sections of the Texas Election Code.

RESPONSE NO. 6: See responses to Interrogatories 1, 3, 4, and 5.

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

INTERROGATORY NO. 7: Identify and describe with particularity any communications your office has had with the Texas Legislature regarding investigations or prosecutions related to the above-listed Sections of the Texas Election Code.

RESPONSE NO. 7: Following diligent inquiry, District Attorney Ogg has not located any communications with the "Texas Legislature" as defined by the request regarding investigations or prosecutions related to one or more of the following provisions of the Texas Election Code as enacted or amended by SB1: 33.051(g), 33.061(a), 86.006(f), 86.010(i), 86.0105, 276.004(a), 276.015(b)-(d), 276.016(a), 276.017(a), and 276.018(a).

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

INTERROGATORY NO. 8: Identify and describe with particularity any communications your office has had with members of the public regarding investigations or prosecutions related to the above-listed Sections of the Texas Election Code.

RESPONSE NO. 8: See responses to Interrogatories 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5.

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

RESPONSES TO LULAC PLAINTIFFS' FIRST REQUESTS FOR INTERROGATORIES

These responses are without prejudice to District Attorney's Ogg position that principles of sovereign immunity bar the requesting plaintiffs' claims against her.

INTERROGATORY NO. 1: State whether you disavow any intent to prosecute violations of SB 1 § 4.06.

RESPONSE NO. 1: The Harris County District Attorney's Office ("HCDAO") does not engage in prosecution of violations of bills but rather—when appropriate under the facts and law and exercise of prosecutorial discretion—criminal violations of enacted laws of the State of Texas that occur within Harris County. See Texas Code of Criminal Procedure art. 2.01; Texas Government Code § 43.180.

For further answer, if any is needed, District Attorney Ogg proposed a stipulation regarding non-enforcement of the criminal provisions added to or amended in the Texas Election Code by SB1 "until such time as a final, non-appealable decision has been issued in this matter." See Exhibit 1. Certain plaintiffs in the consolidated cases failed to accept the reasonable stipulation. District Attorney Ogg does not seek and would not seek to enforce any laws that have been determined by courts to be unconstitutional. Regardless, no matters arising in part or in whole under the following sections of the Texas Election Code as added or amended by SB 1—33.051, 33.061(a), 64.034, 276.015, 276.016, 276.017, 276.018 and 276.019—are pending investigation or prosecution at the HCDAO, other than the following: there were reports made to the HCDAO on or after September 1, 2021 of 12 instances in which individuals provided the Harris County District Clerk and/or the City of Houston with responses to jury summonses indicating a lack of U.S. citizenship that may have been inconsistent with representations of citizenship made on previously filed voter registration applications.

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2: State whether you disavow any intent to prosecute violations of SB 1 § 4.09.

RESPONSE NO. 2: See response to Interrogatory No. 1.

INTERROGATORY NO. 3: State whether you disavow any intent to prosecute any person for conduct that violates SB 1 § 6.04.

RESPONSE NO. 3: See response to Interrogatory No. 1.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4: State whether you disavow any intent to prosecute violations of SB 1 § 7.04.

RESPONSE NO. 4: See response to Interrogatory No. 1.

INTERROGATORY NO. 5: State the number of alleged violations of the Criminal Provisions between the enactment of SB 1 in September 2021 and commencement of trial in this matter of which you are aware and the number of such violations you have investigated or prosecuted. For each incident that you investigated or prosecuted, describe the incident at issue and the outcome of your investigation or prosecution. If you have not investigated or prosecuted any such violations, explain why not.

The Harris County District Attorney's Office ("HCDAO") has not engaged in any investigations initiated between September 2021 to date arising in part or in whole under any one or more of the following provisions of the Texas Election Code: 33.051, 33.061(a), 64.034, 276.015, 276.016, 276.017, 276.018, and 276.019, other than the following: there were reports made to the HCDAO on or after September 1, 2021 of 12 instances in which individuals provided the Harris County District Clerk and/or the City of Houston with responses to jury summonses indicating a lack of U.S. citizenship that may have been inconsistent with representations of citizenship made on previously filed voter registration applications.

From September 2021 to present, the HCDAO has not initiated any prosecutions arising in part or in whole under any one or more of the following provisions of the Texas Election Code: 33.051, 33.061(a), 64.034, 276.015, 276.016, 276.017, 276.018, and 276.019.

To the extent that this interrogatory seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

RESPONSES TO LULAC PLAINTIFFS' REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

These responses are without prejudice to District Attorney's Ogg position that principles of sovereign immunity bar the requesting plaintiffs' claims against her.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION 1: All documents and communications that you identified, relied upon or consulted in preparing your responses to LULAC Plaintiffs' First Set of Interrogatories.

RESPONSE NO. 1: See the foregoing responses to the interrogatories. To the extent that this request seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION 2: All documents and communications sent or made publicly available by you evidencing your disavowal or intention to disavow any intent to prosecute any violation of the Criminal Provisions.

RESPONSE NO. 2: See the foregoing responses to the interrogatories. To the extent that this request seeks more information than is provided above, the request would be inconsistent with the Court's guidance on the scope of discovery during proceedings held on February 16, 2023. As discussed with the Court during the proceedings on February 16, 2023, these responses are intended to address a limited scope of inquiry to the HCDAO. Should requesting plaintiffs persist in seeking broader discovery, District Attorney Ogg maintains and asserts all objections to discovery on any such broader scope, including that the requested discovery concerns matters that are not relevant to the claims being made by requesting plaintiffs; is not proportional to the needs of the case; and seeks to discover information that is privileged from discovery, including under attorney-client communications privilege, attorney work product, informer's identity privilege, and privilege associated with law enforcement investigations.

RESPONSES TO LULAC PLAINTIFFS' REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

These responses are without prejudice to District Attorney's Ogg position that principles of sovereign immunity bar the requesting plaintiffs' claims against her.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1: Admit that you have made no announcement that you will refrain from enforcement of the Criminal Provisions.

RESPONSE NO. 2: Denied.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2: Admit that you do not intend to wholly refrain from prosecuting violations of the Criminal Provisions.

RESPONSE NO. 2: The request cannot be admitted or denied. See response to Interrogatory No. 1. District Attorney Ogg proposed a stipulation regarding non-enforcement of the criminal provisions added to or amended in the Texas Election Code by SB1 "until such time as a final, non-appealable decision has been issued in this matter." See Exhibit 1. Certain plaintiffs in the consolidated cases failed to accept the reasonable stipulation. District Attorney Ogg does not seek and would not seek to enforce any laws that have been determined by courts to be unconstitutional. Regardless, no matters arising in part or in whole under the following sections of the Texas Election Code—33.051, 33.061(a), 64.034, 276.015, 276.016, 276.017, 276.018, and 276.019—are pending investigation or prosecution at the HCDAO.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3: Admit that you do not intend to wholly refrain from investigating alleged violations of the Criminal Provisions.

RESPONSE NO. 3: The request cannot be admitted or denied. See response to Interrogatory No. 1. District Attorney Ogg proposed a stipulation regarding non-enforcement of the criminal provisions added to or amended in the Texas Election Code by SB1 "until such time as a final, non-appealable decision has been issued in this matter." See Exhibit 1. Certain plaintiffs in the consolidated cases failed to accept the reasonable stipulation. District Attorney Ogg does not seek and would not seek to enforce any laws that have been determined by courts to be unconstitutional. Regardless, no matters arising in part or in whole under the following sections of the Texas Election Code—33.051, 33.061(a), 64.034, 276.015, 276.016, 276.017, 276.018, and 276.019—are pending investigation or prosecution at the HCDAO.

AGREED STIPULATION

Plaintiffs and Defendant Kim Ogg, in her capacity as District Attorney for Harris County ("Ogg"), stipulate as follows:

- Plaintiffs stipulate and agree not to seek attorneys' fees, penalties, damages, expert fees, court costs, or other costs or expenses of any kind from Ogg as well as her employees, agents, attorneys, and successors.
- 2. Ogg stipulates and agrees not to enforce Sections 33.051(g), 33.061, 86.006(f), 86.010(f), 276.004(a), 276.015(b)-(d), 276.016(a), 276.017(a), and 276.018(a) of the Texas Election Code challenged in the above-styled and numbered cause until such time as a final, non-appealable decision has been issued in this matter.
- 3. Ogg agrees not to participate in litigating the above-styled and numbered cause unless required to do so, and this stipulation shall be void if the Court orders Ogg to answer the operative complaint or respond to any motions seeking relief from or against Ogg. Further, by entering into this stipulation, Ogg is conserving prosecutorial resources until such time as challenges to the constitutionality of Texas Election Code Sections 33.051(g), 33.061,

86.006(f), 86.010(f), 276.004(a), 276.015(b)-(d), 276.016(a), 276.017(a), and 276.018(a) are resolved.

4. Plaintiffs and Ogg agree that Ogg shall not file an answer, unless ordered to do so by the Court, and that no default judgment shall be taken against her.

5. These stipulations are made without prejudice to any claim or defense that Plaintiff or Ogg may assert subsequent to this litigation.

6. For avoidance of doubt, nothing in this stipulation precludes Plaintiffs from seeking injunctive relief that would bind Ogg with respect to relief sought in the case, and nothing in the stipulation precludes Ogg from taking any position with respect to such relief sought should Ogg later participate in the litigation as provided in paragraph (3).

Before KING, JONES, and SMITH, Circuit Judges.
PER CURIAM:

Plaintiffs-Appellees challenge various provisions of the Texas Election Code as amended by Texas Senate Bill 1, colloquially known as "S.B. 1." They bring constitutional, Voting Rights Act ("VRA"), and other claims against Defendant-Appellant Kim Ogg and various other state and local officials. Ogg, the Harris County District Attorney, moved to dismiss all of Plaintiffs-Appellees' claims, arguing in relevant part that such claims are barred by the Eleventh Amendment's grant of sovereign immunity, that Plaintiffs-Appellees lack standing, and that the complaints do not state a plausible claim. The district court denied her motion, and Ogg filed an interlocutory appeal—currently pending—of the order's denial of her sovereign immunity defense. Ogg then moved to ask the district court to "stay all further discovery and related proceedings against her" (emphasis added) pending our resolution of her interlocutory appeal. The district court denied this motion; Ogg then filed a similar motion in this court. In response, we issued a temporary administrative order staying discovery until further notice and solicited responses from Plaintiffs-Appellees. Having reviewed responses from Plaintiffs-Appellees and Ogg's subsequent reply, we now rule on Ogg's motion to stay discovery pending appeal.

Case 5:21-cv-00844-XR Document 466 Filed 10/07/22 Page 4 of 6 Case: 22-50732 Document: 00516500366 Page: 4 Date Filed: 10/07/2022

In granting a stay, the "most critical" factors we assess are "(1) whether the stay applicant has made a strong showing that he is likely to succeed on the merits" and "(2) whether the applicant will be irreparably injured absent a stay." Richardson v. Tex. Sec. of State, 978 F.3d 220, 228 (5th Cir. 2020). Ogg addresses these factors in attempting to justify a stay based on (1) a likelihood of success on the merits of her sovereign immunity defense and (2) the irreparable harm that would allegedly be caused by violation of her sovereign immunity.

But sovereign immunity cannot bar Plaintiffs-Appellees' VRA claims because the VRA explicitly abrogated sovereign immunity. See OCA-Greater Hous. v. Texas, 867 F.3d 604, 614 (5th Cir. 2017). Thus—and regardless of whether sovereign immunity applies to bar Plaintiffs-Appellees' constitutional claims—sovereign immunity has no bearing on Plaintiffs-Appellees' VRA claims. Concerning these VRA claims, Ogg has no likelihood of succeeding on the merits of a sovereign immunity defense, and she suffers no irreparable harm when we deny her sovereign immunity protections that precedent precludes us from granting. ² She thus cannot meet the required showing to justify a stay on discovery proceedings stemming from any VRA claims. ³ We acknowledge that the scope of such discovery proceedings may substantially overlap with the scope of discovery arising under Plaintiffs-Appellees' constitutional claims. Nevertheless, Ogg has not shown the factors required to stay discovery arising out of the VRA claims, and we thus decline to broadly stay all discovery proceedings.

¹ The other factors are "(3) whether issuance of the stay will substantially injure the other parties interested in the proceeding" and "(4) where the public interest lies." Richardson, 978 F.3d at 228.

Case 5:21-cv-00844-XR Document 466 Filed 10/07/22 Page 5 of 6 Case: 22-50732 Document: 00516500366 Page: 5 Date Filed: 10/07/2022

No. 22-50732

With respect to the VRA claims, Ogg only restates arguments from her initial motion to dismiss in district court, namely (1) these VRA claims are not specifically pleaded as to Ogg and (2) Ogg can show she is likely to succeed on the merits of her argument that Plaintiffs-Appellees lack standing to bring their VRA claims. We are unpersuaded for two reasons. First, we note the district court has not yet rendered a final judgment in the underlying suit. Accordingly, we decline Ogg's invitation to prematurely review these pleading and standing arguments at the motions stage of an interlocutory appeal concerning a wholly separate sovereign immunity issue. Second, even if Ogg is correct on the merits, these arguments cannot justify a stay. Assuming arguendo that Plaintiffs-Appellees' VRA claims are deficient in the ways Ogg suggests, she still has not articulated any theory of irreparable harm arising from being subjected to discovery requests related to these purportedly deficient VRA claims. Absent this showing of irreparable harm,

² For completeness, we note that the other two factors also likely weigh against issuance of a stay based on an inapplicable defense; issuing a stay would contravene clear precedent, which is likely to injure other parties and is not in the public interest.

³ Similarly, given the clarity of the VRA's abrogation of sovereign immunity, there is no "serious legal question... involved," Ruiz v. Estelle, 650 F.2d 555, 565 (5th Cir. 1981), here that could justify a lower threshold for Ogg's showing a likelihood of success. Even if she could show a "serious legal question," she does not show how sovereign immunity could bar the VRA claims and thus has not shown a likelihood of success.

Case 5:21-cv-00844-XR Document 466 Filed 10/07/22 Page 6 of 6 Case: 22-50732 Document: 00516500366 Page: 6 Date Filed: 10/07/2022

No. 22-50732

we decline to grant the extraordinary request of a stay on otherwise proper discovery proceedings arising out of Plaintiffs-Appellees' VRA claims.

IT IS ORDERED that the Appellant Kim Ogg's opposed motion to stay all further discovery and related proceedings against her or her office in the district court, pending this Court's resolution of her interlocutory appeal of the denial of Ogg's motion to dismiss based on the legal defense of sovereign immunity, is DENIED.

Also working with, uh, the other members of So I'm actually a consultant. And so we have 8 9 full-time staff. I work with them at times, to educate them, uh, on items like SB 1, uh, because there are 10 11 instances where we also have to take away from their time, 12 to train them on the changes to SB 1, so they can educate 13 our clients that come to those other programmatic areas. 14 So it's a diversion of their time, those resources. 15 Uhm, what else? 16 I've trained our volunteers, when it comes 17 to, uh, canvassing efforts, going out into the community, to let people know when an election is going on, to go out 18 and, you know, help register people to vote. 19 Uh, also working with Mr. Robinson and our 20 21 Board Chair around radio campaigns, around Get Out The 22 Vote. Uh, again, we had to do that as recent as last Uhm, that was not something that was planned but, 23 fall. again, in response to SB 1, we had to divert our time and 24 resources, to put something together, to make sure that 25

- 1 picking phrases out of, uh, out of a paragraph.
- 2 Uhm, the phrase you picked out has a clear
- 3 predicate here, uhm, so maybe you want to focus on that.
- 4 Uhm, I'm just suggesting that -- that if you want to
- 5 understand the particular phrase, it -- it was
- 6 stated in context.
- 7 MR. DiSORBO: Okay. And I guess the reason
- 8 I didn't read the whole antecedent is it's very long
- 9 and -- and I think it would have been hard to apply it to
- 10 just one or the other, but I understand what you're
- 11 saying.
- 12 Q. (BY MR. DiSORBO) Uhm, have you stopped -- Has
- 13 HAUL stopped doing any activities since the passage of
- 14 SB 1?
- 15 A. And you're talking about across the entire
- 16 organization?
- 17 Q. Uh, yes.
- 18 A. Things have been scaled back as a result of the
- 19 passage of SB 1. I don't --
- Q. Which things?
- 21 A. So I think I have mentioned a few times
- 22 specifically my activities and what I was originally
- 23 brought in to -- to take care of have been impacted.
- 24 So when I was brought on initially, uhm, it
- 25 was actually in conjunction with Houston in Action and the Page 149 census project, uhm, so this was in August of 2019. 1 2 Uhm, fast forward to, uhm -- What is it? 3 I'm trying to think of my timelines now. 4 So in the legislative session, 2021, at 5 this point, obviously, the census is over; uhm, I'm 6 supposed to be focusing more on educating the community around redistricting, even though there was some issues with the State when it came to that, gerrymandering, uhm, 9 as we have been accused and convicted of in years past, so 10 that happening again. 11 Uhm, but that was one of the things I was 12 educating the community on. Uh, in addition to the 13 general advocacy classes, uhm, some of the monthly activations, they have had to now shift to focus on SB 1, 14 when that was not initially a part of the planning. 15 16 So, typically, how it goes is myself, 17 Mr. Robinson, uhm, and Eric Goodie, our Area Vice-President will say, "Okay. Hey, this spring, these 18 are the things we want to focus on, uhm, but because of 19 SB I, some of those things have to be put on hold because 20 21 we have to continue to focus on voting rights." 22 Uhm, and so it does take away time from, for example, us just doing voter registration. Instead of 23 24 registering more voters, we are having to also take time to educate people on SB 1, and I think it's important to 25

- 1 note that, you know, just because we have been educating
- 2 them about the potential harm and have start to do it
- 3 about the harm that it causes now, it doesn't stop,
- 4 because there is constantly people moving to the Houston
- 5 area; so there is more people to continue to educate.
- 6 We are one of the -- You know, as a native
- 7 Houstonian, you know, part of me doesn't want a whole
- 8 bunch people moving to the city; I feel like we're full,
- 9 but the reality is that people keep coming here, and so as
- 10 they continue to move here, we have to continue to educate
- 11 those people, uh, and you and I both know, because we are,
- 12 you know, both educated, you can't just tell somebody
- 13 something once and they are just going to know it; and so
- 14 it takes a lot of repetition.
- 15 And so because of that, uhm, it's pulled
- 16 away from my activities that I was initially brought it to
- 17 handle. I mentioned it's pulled away from those Family
- 18 and Community Engagement activities through our Education
- 19 Department.
- 20 Uhm, in some instances, it will pull away
- 21 from our Housing Department, some of the activities they
- 22 would facilitate, uhm, when it comes to counseling, when
- 23 it comes to, uhm, some of the tabling events they would be
- 24 doing, because we now have to spend additional time and
- 25 energy, but also for me to train the other staff on what

Page 151 SB 1 is. 1 2 So it's not just me training the community; 3 uhm, I have to train them; and even, you know, for myself, 4 you know, I'm pretty smart. I don't know everything and I 5 have to continue to read through these things and 6 understand them. So there is a lot of, uhm, time, resources that gets -- has and will continue to get used on this, 8 9 and, like I said, Mr. Robinson has started to look at now hiring somebody full-time that all they do is voting, uhm, 10 11 and that's not something we have funding for, so he has to 12 go out and find that money. 13 So I want to talk more about the monthly activations in a second, but let's talk about 14 redistricting first. 15 16 Uhm -- So when you were originally brought on, you were focusing on Houston in Action and census 17 activities. 18 19 Is that right? 20 That's correct. Α. 21 Q. Uhm, and then the plan was for you to transition to focusing on redistricting. 22 23 Is that correct? 24 Α. That is correct.

If they are asked to sign a form that says that they are -- could be criminally prosecuted for helping a person erroneously. There's also not the opportunity for her to be fully supported. I don't know what Ms. Litzinger needs, but it could be additional support, cueing, navigating the poling place, translation services. Any of those that the Arc of Texas is concerned that would be limited in how she is supported and her assister would be likely to assist her in voting because of their concern about filling out a form that could have criminal penalties.

- Q. Do you know whether Ms. Litzinger voted at all in the March 22 primary?
 - A. I do not.
- Q. Do you know whether Ms. Litzinger has ever voted in an election?

Q. Now, the problem as I understand you're saying is, Arc of Texas contends that it added a criminal penalty; is that right?

A. Correct.

- Q. Okay. Has Arc of Texas heard from any assister that they can identify at this deposition today, who has declined to provide assistance in voting on account of Senate Bill 1?
- A. Again, we don't do individual we do systems work so I do not have any information on an assister.
- Q. What is Arc of Texas' factual contention for how Section 6.04 harms Ms. Litzinger?
- A. We believe that there is a barrier being placed in front of our members that requires them to have a limited set of supports that are available to them that does not include cueing, navigating, translation, and a myriad of other supports that a unique person with a disability may need to vote successfully in Texas. In addition to that, requiring folks to sign a oath that could end in criminal penalty is an additional burden for Texans with disabilities to vote.
- Q. You talked earlier this morning about the criminal justice system as regard to people with IDD, right?
- 25 A. Yes.

1 | developmental disabilities?

A. Without the appropriate supports that's a possibility.

- Q. Let's move onto Section 6.05 which is at Page 53. What is the Arc of Texas' factual contention for how Ms. Litzinger is harmed by Section 6.05?
- A. We believe that a barrier is placed in front of anybody with a disability who is looking to vote when there is a criminal penalty for filling out a form incorrectly that's a concern and is a barrier in our minds.
- Q. You understand that Section 6.05 applies to a person who assists not the person voting, right?
 - A. Correct.
- Q. So I guess what I'm trying to get at is, what is the factual contention about how this impacts the person with the disability?
- A. The person with the disability could be impacted by an assister because they are concerned about a criminal penalty. Not receiving the appropriate supports and assistance that they need to successfully vote.
- Q. Does Arc of Texas have any examples that you can give me today of an assister who has declined to provide assistance on account of criminal penalties in

And now we're adding -- this -- this particular section is adding additional burdens on those who drive individuals to the polls by subjecting them to have to complete the name and address and all of this information, which they did not have to do in the past. If I'm just driving you to the poll and dropping you off so that you can vote, we're not understanding why this is -- this -- you know, this added information is necessary. It's just a burden on the individuals.

Also, it means that for us, we're having -- this is another part of the -- of the retraining that we're going to have to do because what's most concerning to us is that if they make a mistake, if they don't list all of the people that they have brought to the polls, that they're subjected possibly to criminal penalties. So we want to make sure that our volunteers and our members are safe when they are providing a service to voters who otherwise would not be able to get to the polls.

- Q. Okay. And the -- but the oath -- do you -- are you familiar with what the oath forms say?
- A. Which oath -- what oath form are we talking about?

Michelle Brown April 23, 2022

A. It could, if they were driving an SUV.

Q. Okay. And would there be some concern with that person basically signing an oath saying that they didn't provide any unlawful assistance?

- A. Well, the issue is because this is so new and this is not something that's been done before, if they make a minor mistake, then they are subjected to criminal penalties, and that's what we're concerned about.
- Q. Okay. And what -- what kinds of mistakes would you call minor that are the concern?
- A. Perhaps go drop a group off, fill out the -- the names and what -- and forget one of the persons that they had transported or something like that. We don't know. It's just burdensome to know that this is something that our volunteers and our members are going to have to be subjected to.
- Q. Has -- has Delta Sigma Theta, have they -- have they expended funds as a result of this provision?
- A. Absolutely, in re-educating the members so that they understand what the obligations are and what the penalties are in terms of not following this new provision. We want them to understand so that they -- we can mitigate the possibility of any criminal penalties against any of our members or volunteers.

- Q. Okay. Like the other provisions that we have talked about, are you slotting those educational programs into existing educational programs?
- A. No, these are new educational programs because these are new provisions. This is a new law.
- Q. So they're within the same -- you said that there were existing educational programs and that --
 - A. We're having to -- sorry.
- Q. -- these would be brought -- and that these would be brought up in the course of those on the previous provisions. Are you -- are you now saying that there are additional educational programs that have to be created in terms of --
- A. Absolutely. There are several chapters who have created educational webinars specifically -- specifically geared towards SB1. In fact, I can think of one, the Houston alumnae chapter is doing a program called "Navigating SB1 In the Election Process," or something like that.

So it's specifically to that, which is educating our community, our members, and our earlier your educational activities, the application process that your organization engages in. What other voting activities does Delta Sigma Theta perform other than those that we talked about?

- I think we've talked about most things. provide, of course, the voter education. We provide the forums, candidate forums so that the voters can be knowledgeable what the candidates stand for. provide webinars on how, when, where to vote. Webinars -- we provided webinars on the full scope of SB1 and how it affects them. We've provided transportation to the polls. And we've provided training to our members on how to volunteer with -since SB1 on how to volunteer with our communities, ensuring that they know the full scope of SB1 so that they can also convey that information to them and do it safely so that they're not subjected to criminal penalties.
- Q. And do you believe those have been effective, your training programs?
 - A. They have been what?
 - Q. They have been effective.
 - A. We hope so, yes.
- Q. All right. Now, I want to ask about any other partner organizations related to voting. Now,

Let's say a person in a nursing home is a nurse, and she gets paid by somebody to go around and gather voter registrations from everybody in the nursing home, do you think that that nurse should be allowed to not identify her relationship to the people she's gathering registrations from? A. Can you say that again? Q. Sure. A. Give me that example again. Q. Sure. A nurse in a nursing home gathers voter registrations from people in the nursing home, so everybody in there, helps them fill them out. Do you think that that nurse should be allowed to not identify her relationship to the

A. I can't speak to that example. It's a concern around voter harvesting? Q. Well, I think it is. And so my question to you is: Would you see that as a problem? A. Our focus at Mi Familia Vota is to ensure that the voting process and the people that are assisting folks throughout the voting process
